The mop is used to wash the floor.
There is mud in the hoof of this cow.
Some of the orange juice is gone from this mug.
This map of the world shows some of the continents.
The gypsy moth makes a large nest.
The brown mat is at the entrance to the store.
The catcher's mitt is on the ground with the ball.
Many letters arrive in the mail each day.
My favorite subject must be math.
The bull moose and cow are walking through the brush.
The mouth on the horse is open.
The burnt match still has a hot spot on it.
The diver is adjusting his mask.
If a popsicle is not in the freezer it will melt.
A glass of milk and a sandwich makes a quick lunch.
The man is holding his baby on his hip.
The male lion has a thick mane of fur around its head.
The full moon is bright white.
I used the spray bottle to mist the plant.
The red and white mint is still in its wrapper.

a large mammal

One camel has a large hump on its back.
Always wear goggles when you use a hammer.
He is cutting lumber to build the house.
The street number for this house is painted on the curb.
In the summer, we play baseball.
He is climbing the rock.
The swimmer in the third lane might win the race.
The lizard is warming itself on the rock.
Sometimes big machines are used for farming.
The colorful streamer is hanging on a pole, in front of the house.
The baboon on the left is grooming the other baboon.
The writing on the tombstone has faded away.
Pick one lemon from the pile of lemons and limes.
The red thermos is next to the bag.
Planes depart from the gates at the airline terminal.
There is a brick chimney on the right and one on the far left.
This animal lives in the tundra.
The scarecrow family lives in the pumpkin patch.
The calendar is turned to the month of September 1996.
A donkey is a large mammal.

The hem of this coat is not very straight.
The forsythia is starting to bloom at this home.
The parliament building has a big dome in the middle.
The team of horses is pulling the wagon.
The rooster has a bright red comb on the top of its head.
Which president has his portrait on a dime?
There are seven gum balls on the table.
Would you like some jam on your toast?
He is waiting in the gym for the game to begin.
It must be hard to cut the pattern into each gem.
Look closely and you can see a peacock on the limb of the tree.
The palm tree is growing above the bushes.
The broom is in the corner.
He is using his fingertips to climb the rock.
This wooden drum was made in Hawaii.
The swimmers are racing at the swim meet.
The hot steam is cooking the carrots and beans in the steamer.
The dry grass quickly burst into flame.
The drawing is in the wooden frame.
The purple mum is in a pot on the table.
